Conduct & Policies: We want our camps to be a fun, positive and safe experience for all campers. We expect all campers and parents to conduct themselves in an appropriate manner and to support our efforts to achieve this goal, including honoring camp policies. Accordingly, the JCCSF reserves the right to suspend or dismiss your child from the camp program if the JCCSF concludes in its sole discretion that your child's or your conduct is disruptive to the camp program. No refunds or reduction in fees are issued for days missed due to suspension or dismissal. Additional camp policies are set forth in the Parent Manual attached to your confirmation email and available online.

Change in Programming: The JCCSF may, in its sole discretion, before or after commencement of the Camp program, change the manner or method in which the Camp program is offered and/or conducted. Such changes may include but are not limited to changing courses or programs or the method of offering courses or programs to accommodate governmental requirements or guidance. You will not be entitled to any refund or adjustment in amounts paid as a result of any changes to the Camp program.

Force Majeure: The JCCSF's duties and obligations under this Agreement shall be suspended immediately without notice during all periods that the JCCSF or the Camp program is closed because of a force majeure event ("Force Majeure Event") including, but not limited to, acts of God, severe acts of nature or weather events including floods, fires (including wildfires), earthquakes, or explosions; war, acts of terrorism, epidemics and pandemics; acts of governmental authorities such as expropriation, condemnation, shelter-in-place orders, orders restricting conduct of activities provided under this Agreement, and changes in laws and regulations; strikes and labor disputes and any other event beyond the JCCSF's control. In response to a Force Majeure Event, the JCCSF may, but is not required to, relocate, modify, and/or reschedule its operations, abbreviating or extending scheduled breaks and/or scheduled days of no activities. If there is a Force Majeure Event, the JCCSF may cancel the Camp program, and if the Program is cancelled, the JCCSF shall have no obligation to refund any portion of the amounts paid.

Miscellaneous: This Agreement is governed in accordance with the laws of the State of California and the venue for any legal proceeding will be San Francisco, California, regardless of where you and/or the child reside or execute this Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matter referred to herein. Should any of the provisions of this Agreement be determined to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable by a court or government agency of competent jurisdiction, such provision shall be deemed fully severable, and the balance of the Agreement shall be given full force and effect in accordance with its terms. The parties agree to replace any invalid provision with a valid provision that most closely approximates the intent and economic effect of the invalid provision. In the event of a dispute between the parties arising out of or relating to this Agreement, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover its attorneys' fees and costs.

Termination & Dismissal: The JCCSF believes that a positive and constructive working relationship between the Camp program, its students and their families is essential to fulfillment of the Camp program's mission. The JCCSF reserves the right to suspend or terminate the enrollment of your child, if in the sole discretion of the JCCSF, your child's performance, conduct or influence is not in keeping with the Camp program's standards. Further, the JCCSF reserves the right to, at any time, terminate the enrollment of your child, if, in the sole discretion of the JCCSF, the JCCSF determines that your child, you, or other adult affiliated with your child and/or your child's family fails to abide by the Camp program's philosophy or policies, or acts or fails to act in such a way that a positive and constructive relationship is not possible.

These policies must be agreed to by the Parents/Guardian of this child. The failure of a parent or legal guardian to sign this Agreement shall not in any way affect the validity or enforceability of this Agreement.
